Advanced Balanced Scorecard

HR Best Practices for Line Leaders Series

 CENTER FOR CONTINUING EDUCATION

Over the past few decades, organizations have come to realize that success in business can not only be measured in terms of financial outcomes. A huge portion of the company's assets are intangible like a company's brand, customer mindset, the processes and procedures, the knowledge base created by employees and training initiatives. Hence, organizations need a tool to help them measure this expanded definition of success. The Balanced Scorecard is the answer to this need.

The Balanced Scorecard is more than just a new measurement system. It is now used as the central/core framework for management processes. As a strategic planning and management system, it is used extensively in business and industry, government, and nonprofit organizations worldwide. It aligns business activities to the vision and strategy of your organization, improve internal and external communications, and monitor organization performance against strategic goals. Learn to transform your organization's strategic plan to action plans, linking and aligning organizational to individual action plans.

This course aims to provide feedback between your internal business processes and external outcomes in order to continuously improve strategic performance and results.
