ABOUT AGSB-CCE

The Ateneo Graduate School of Business - Center for Continuing Education (AGSB-CCE) was established to complement the existing Ateneo-BAP Institute of Banking, a consortium between the Ateneo de Manila University and the Bankers Association of the Philippines. It was initially known as the Basic Leadership Program (BLP) until the name was changed to Continuing Professional Education (CPE) and then finally, to Center for Continuing Education (CCE).

Under AGBS, CCE takes an active role in addressing specific industry concerns that require immediate, purposeful, and focused response. As an industry resource and partner, CCE offers continuing professional development programs that are workplace-based with immediate take-away value. Methodologies are based on business simulation, practical exercises and applications, case analyses, and focused discussions. Courses are designed, developed and delivered by industry practitioners who are noted experts in their respective fields. Together, AGBS and CCE support the Ateneo mission to promote excellence, integrity and service.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND?

This series is a timely learning experience for:

- HR, OD and Training Practitioners with or without coaching experience
- Newly trained or experienced Internal or External Coaches
- Supervisors, Middle Managers, Executives who use coaching in their leadership work

CURATING HOPE IN CRISIS: COACHING FOR WELLNESS AT WORK

This module explores positive and realistic interventions for individuals and organizations to create sustainable change and wellness. How can we manage change and support our people in the process of implementing the necessary changes? In this dynamic workshop, you will learn how to increase personal resilience, leading to meaningful work for people and solution-building strategies that promote holistic perspectives focused on wellness in managing change in the workplace.

OUTLINE

I. Understanding Resilience

- A. Definitions and Defining
- B. Three Myths of Resilience
- C. Conditions and Capacities

II. Personal Resilience

- A. Self-Assessment
- B. Stories and Applications

III. Resilient Leadership

- A. Relational Resilience
- B. Triggers and Personal Strategies

OBJECTIVES

This module is intended to help the leaders understand how their resilience shows up in the moments that matter the most at work and even at home. The online workshop will introduce practical evidence from communication science that supports situational resilience and relational resilience. This interactive learning experience will touch on the burning topics of how to transition through rapid changes and build new and healthy habits that will impact self and others.

Some of the key positive differences you are hoping to see as you participate in this workshop:

- Understand the relevance of resiliency during the current pandemic and its relationship to the V.U.C.A environment;
- Understand the research-based evidence and importance of resiliency as well as the traits of a resilient leader;
- Learn at least one resiliency framework and model that addresses both personal and leadership resiliency;
- Deepen a sense of one's own resiliency and awareness of triggers that negatively impact one's mental fitness and agility;
- Exploration of several types of resilience interventions including cognitive strategies; coping strategies to stay healthy and mentally strong; along with quick tactics to immediately boost resilience; and
- Learn exercises that help leaders support resiliency within their staff and teams
