resource person

MS. ELEANOR MODESTO is a cum laude graduate of the University of the Philippines. She came from the Creative side of the business and started as a Copywriter and moved up as Creative Director in PAC, Ace Compton (now Saatchi and Saatchi) and Lintas Manila. She became one of the first Agency Heads from Creative who became the CEO of the Advertising Agency. Eleanor saw the growth of the advertising business in Jakarta from Print and Outdoor to a robust multi-media communications power house in Asia. They were exciting times in Indonesia and it was a time for pioneering ideas like starting a Brand Experience Division and a Production Team that created the country's top rating TV game show. She also established a Below-the-Line Activation group within the agency. "Like our clients, our agency was reacting to the intense competition by growing beyond the traditional advertising and marketing" adds Eleanor. The 21 year stint in Lowe Lintas Jakarta (now Lowe Mullen Group) made her realize that marketing strategies and ideas don't have a nationality and the great ones are those based on human insights that delve into the mind and hearts of the people who use the brands.

She returned to Manila in 2010 and started a digital agency, Pure Digital which was later integrated into Publicis, a big Multi-national advertising agency where she was Strategic Planning Consultant. Today, Eleanor believes it is time to give back. Inspired by Maya Angelou who wrote - "When you learn, Teach. When you get, Give." Eleanor conducts workshops on Marketing Communication, Consumer Insighting, Market Research and Win-Win Negotiations in Manila and the Asean region.
